

Activity # 3-5

Learning Activity: Who Am I?

Goal: Help students practice using closed-ended questions.

Materials:

Names of celebrities

Time:

15 minutes

Instructions:

Ask for a volunteer to try to guess what celebrity the group has in mind. They must leave the room while you instruct the class. Tell them to be prepared to ask closed-ended questions.

Ask a group to select a celebrity. Ensure they all know about the celebrity.

Key Learning Points:

Closed-ended questions help you to zero-in on answers.

Who Am I?

Overview:

This is excellent for going over the open-ended and close-ended questions.

Procedure:

1. Ask for a volunteer to be the person that has to guess who the group is thinking about.
2. Ask volunteer to step out of the room and have group pick a celebrity that they want the volunteer to guess who they are.
3. The volunteer comes back into the room and asks closed-ended question about the celebrity. (Am I a female? Am I between the ages of 21 to 30 years old? Am I in the movies? Am I a singer?, etc.)

Suggestions:

If you think the group will take up to much time selecting the celebrity you can go with 3 or 4 from which to pick. This might save you time and you can play several rounds.
